The Democratic Congressmen have issued an address to their party. It position, even to the writing of letters, for accuses the Republican party, with much generality, but it avoids committing the Democracy to any principles or policy. We have no doubt that after that "unpleasantness" in heaven, when the conciderates were beaten and east out, they could have issued just such an address as in the habit of taking quinine as a silmuthis against the heavenly host. But they did not. Satan and his chiefs were not so silly as to suppose that any accusation and that in consequence of using it in they state this, unless to bring before our eyes the cost of Democracy?

They state the annual expenses, and say it is more than in Democratic times, over thirty millions of it is for pensions to soldiers, widows, orphans, maimed and bereit by the murders of the Democratic rebellion. Let them keep before our eyes the consequences of their own crimes.

But they misuse words in their combining the property of the property of the property of the pastor-architecture.

Nervous Debility.

Thousands suffer from it. A weak persons a phanisted feeling, no energy and the property of the property of the property of the pastor-architecture. But they misuse words in their comparisons. These are Democratic times.

The debt of $2,500,000,000 is Democratic. Imation or vigor, low spirits, confused to as usually made. The interest of over 100 millions is Demo- head, weak memory, nocturnal or involcratic. The pensions are Democratic.
The expanded military and naval establishments by the war are Democratic.
The extra civil establishment required to

The land rings with the murder of unoffending men by the party friends of these members; yet they party friends of these members; yet they only arraign the law cancred to punish them. Is Democracy synonymous with Ku-Klux? True, they denounce generally the idea that the Democratic party can have sympathy with disorders or violence; but they show the character of this by danwing that there are any disorders or but they show the character of this by denying that there are any disorders or violence in the South.

Lacking the integrity to make a plain recognition of the disorded and dangerous state of the South, they recognize it indirectly by a general exhortation to maintain peace and order, and protect the rights of every citizen, and by prescribing friendship and affection as the best means to restore peace in the South.

But the Democratic mind does not hold peace and friendship compatible wih Republican rule. It does not mean that its Southern confederates should abide by the law under a Bounding. aw under a Republican administration What it means is war to carry the South-ern elections, and a Democratic adminis-tration to embrace the redanded. That is its notion of restoring Democratic tranquility.

The studress is too feeble. Its accusa-tions of the Republican rule amount to nothing. It is as if the criminal classes should upbraid the government for the cost of protecting society. It offers no policy or principle that can inspire the marks to lake acknowledgments of Decade with that office.

A Letter from the Poet. NEW YORK, March 80, 1871.

To Joseph H. Richards, Esq.

DEAR SIR: I promised sometime since to give you some account of my habits of life, so far, at least, as regards diet, exercise, and occupation. I am not sure that it will be of any use to you, although the system which I have for many years observed, seems to answer my purpose very well. I have reached a pretty advance period of life, without the usual infirmities of old age, and with my strength, ac tivity, and bodily faculties generally in good preservation. How far this may be the effect of my way of life, adopted long ago, and steadily adhered to, is perhaps ncertain.

"I rise early—at this time of year Board of Directors of the Hospital for the Insane at Weston, held a meeting on the 20th at the Hospital, present the following gentlemen:

Dr. A. E. Summers, of Kanawha; Dr. Same ime call into action all the muscles are time call into action all the muscles. S. G. Shaw, of Mason; T. C. Green, of and articulations of the body. These are Jefferson; A. M. Wood, of Hardy; John V. Rathbone, of Wood; Daniel Donehoo, of pole, a horizontal bar, and a light chair Rathbone, of Wood; Daniel Donemo, of Hancock; A. A. Lewis and Geo. J. Arnold, of Lewis; George R. Tingle, of Ohio.

The Board was organized by electing George R. Tingle, of Ohio, President; George R. Tingle, of Ohio, President; Carallel M. Carall Indisposition to exertion, Loss of Power,

The Democratic Address.

The Democratic Address.

The Democratic Address. The Democratic Congressmen have which tasks the faculties, such as com-did not. Satan and his chiefs were not so silly as to suppose that any accusation they could bring against the party that had banished them to the bottomics pit would affect public opinion. So they did not raise an outery of accusation, but set themselves at work to contrive to regain by strategy what they had lost by force.

The Democratic Congressmen are silly enough to suppose that their vague accusations against the Republican party will move somebody. Else why did they tulminate it? It will affect neither Democratic or Republican; nor is there any suppose that their and the like. I am, Sir, truly yours.

consequence of excesses, overwork or incollect revenue to pay these war expanded expenses is Democratic. Only a fraction of the governmental expenses is Republican.

They say Congress has done nothing to reduce taxation. And the Democratic members have distinguished themselves, even in the denunciations of the journals of their own party, for their incapacity to originate or aid any rational system of reducing taxation. They demonstrated what they wanted was not to reform taxation, but to deprive the government wholly or revenue to keep the public faith.

They denounce the legislation against these organized murderers; therefore their lineapacity many against these organized murderers; therefore their ill goning of the law is the feature of the collection of the public faith.

My Extract Sarsaparilla is a Blood Purifier; my Extract Buchu is a bluretic, and will act as such in all cases.

Both are prepared on purely scientific principles—In pozuo—and are the most active measures of either that can be made. A ready and conclusive test will be a comparison of their properties with those set forth in the following works:
